ᓀᐦᐃᔨᓂᐤ

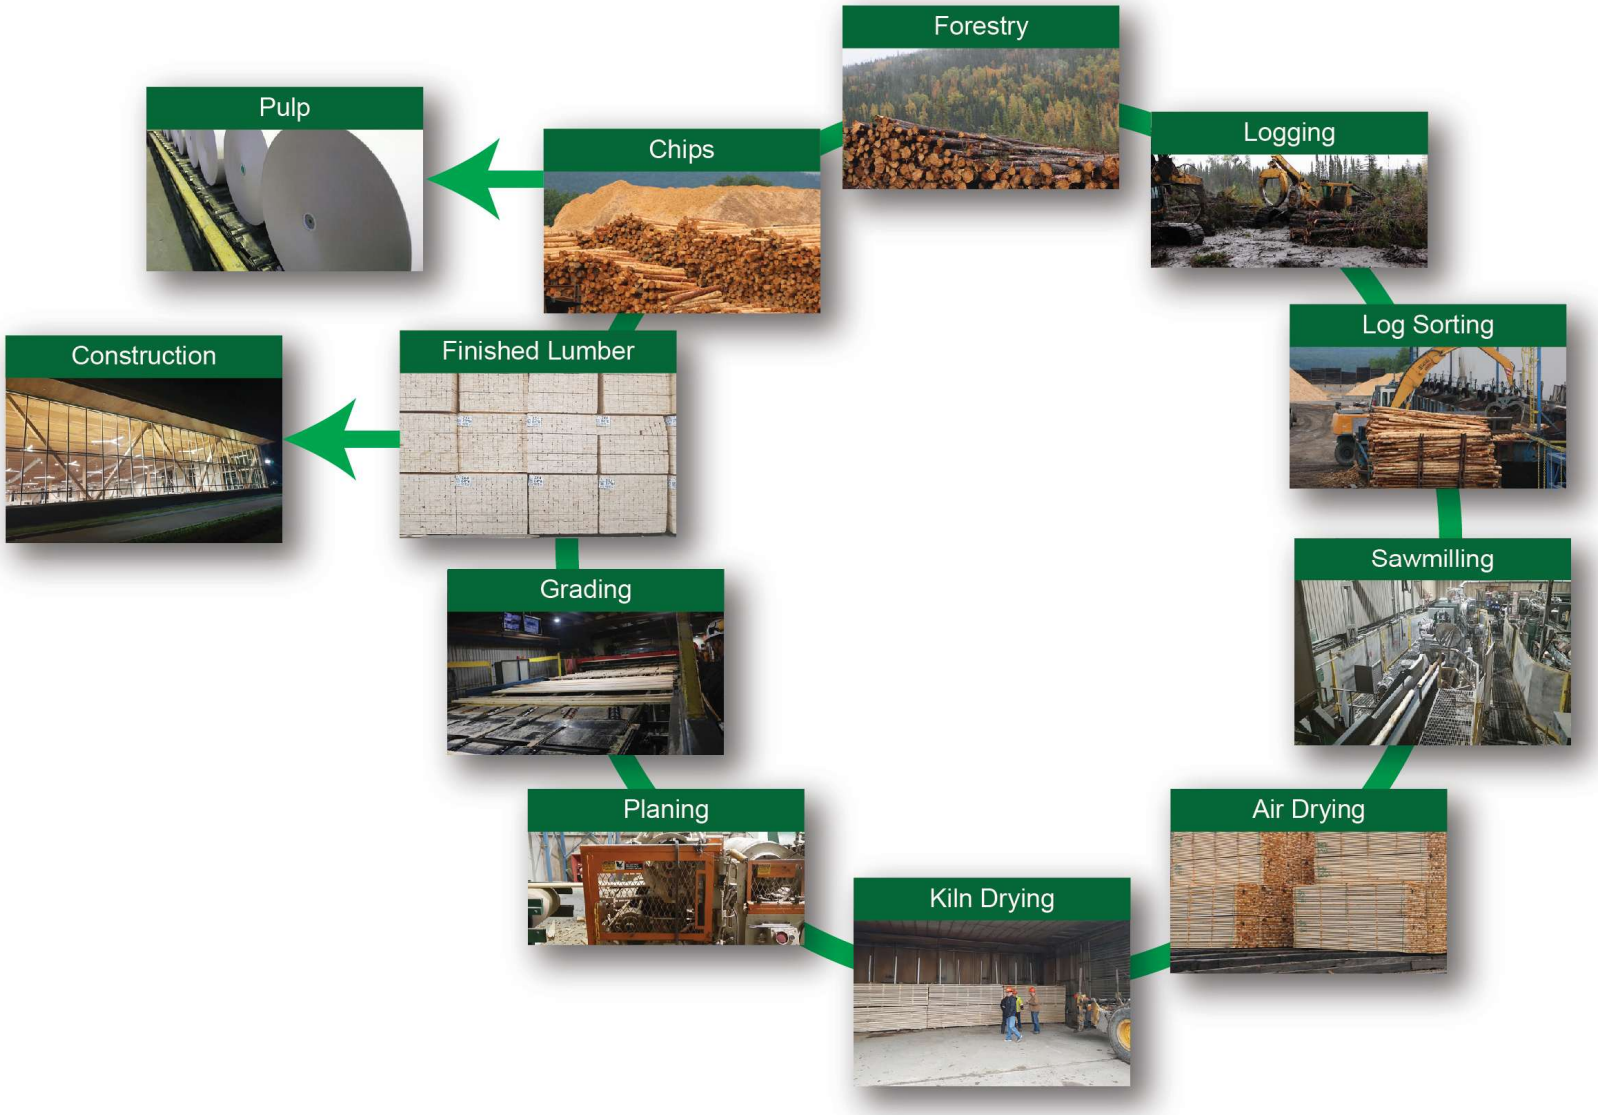

BOIS D'ŒUVRE CRI

CREE LUMBER

WASWANIPI MISHTUK CORPORATION

CHANTIERS CHIBOUGAMAU

BOIS D'ŒUVRE CRI
CREE LUMBER
ᓀᐦᐃᔨᓂᐢ
CHANTIERS
CHIBOUGAMAU
WASWANIPI
MISHTUK
CORPORATION
The Cree First Nation Of Waswanipi

Forestry
Logging
Log Sorting
Sawmilling
Air Drying
Kiln Drying
Planing
Grading
Finished Lumber
Construction
Chips
Pulp

Objectives

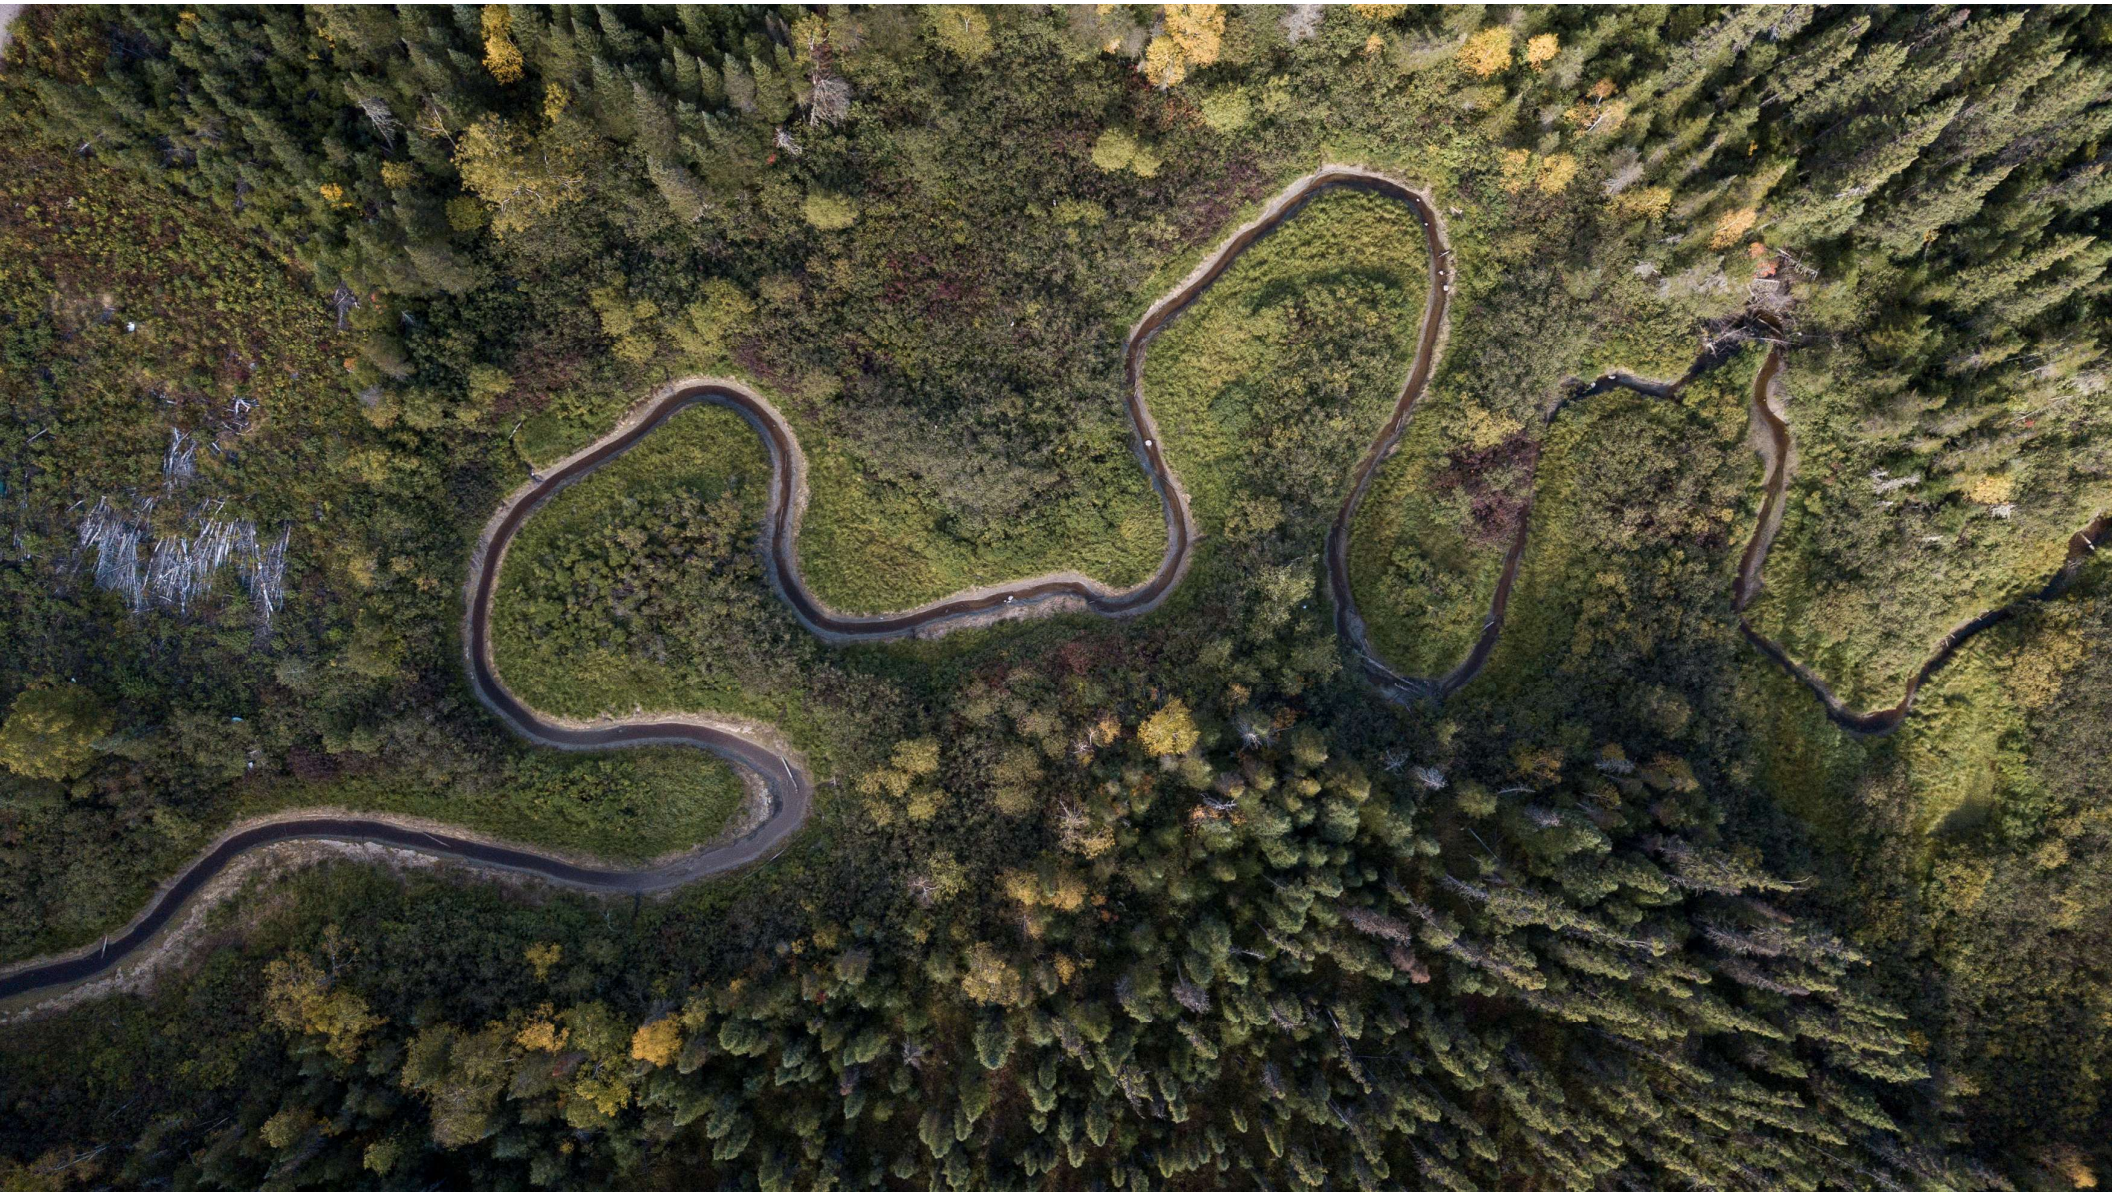

Forest allocations

Capital and partnerships

Manufacturing story

Talent and career workforce

Rebuilding

Objectives

Objectives

- Lower cost of homebuilding
- Career development
- Participation in the forest economy
- Profit and spin-offs

Forest allocations

Forest allocations

- Paix des Braves agreement
- Economic development
- Harvesting crews
- Stable and secure
- 225,000 m3
- Impacts from forest fires

Modernization

Before

After

Modernization

- Best wood for best use
- Automation and intelligence
- Efficiency
- Utilization
- Best of breed in Quebec

Manufacturing

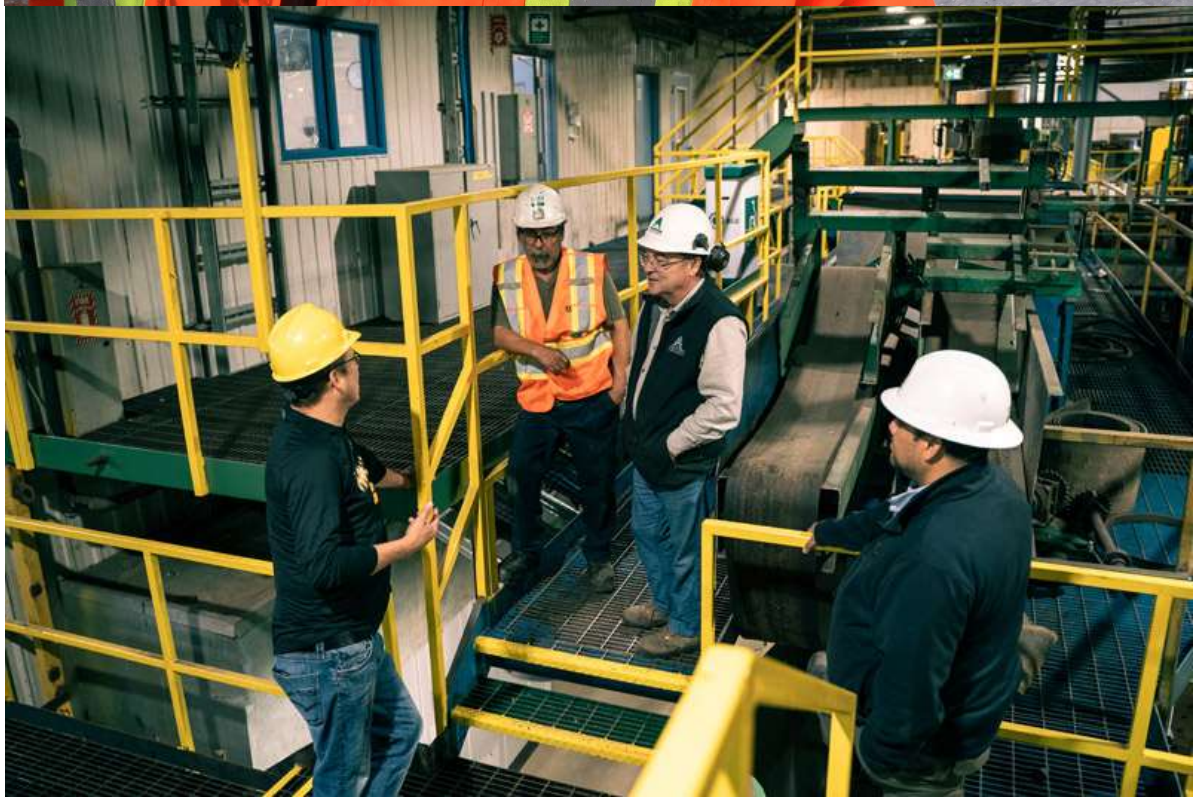

Manufacturing story

- SPF NLGA
- KD offsite
- Log merchandising
- Hewsaw
- Drop-bin sorting
- Significant LRF ratios & throughput

Talent and careers

Talent and careers

- Mentorship
- Discipline in the workforce
- A strong team
- 100% Cree employment

Loss of the mill

Loss of the mill

- Catastrophic fire in January 2024
- Full investigations
- Rebuilding stalled due to market conditions and trade wars

Our future

Our future

- Maintain vision
- Cree Homes
    - Pre-manufactured components
- Cree Lumber (2.0)
    - European market
    - Value-added